Whitehall, February 4.

THE following Addreſs of the Governor and Company of Merchants Adventurers trading to Hambourg, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To His moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Governour and Company of Merchants Adventurers of England, with great Humility beſeech your Majeſty, to permit us to return our ſincere Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's moſt gracious Conceſſion in Favour of our Trade and Navigation, in exempting Britiſh Veſſels from anchoring before your City of Stade, and allowing them to proceed directly to Hambourg, without Delay or Danger.

We are ſenſible that your Majeſty has ſucceeded to an undoubted Right of detaining Ships for the Payment of the accuſtomed Duties, and that we are bound, equally with other Nations, to reſpect the Prerogative and ancient Laws of the Stader Toll, whatever may be the Inconveniencies thereof: But this ſhews only how much we are indulged by your Majeſty, when you are pleaſed to wave your Electoral Rights in favour of your Britiſh Merchants.

Such ſignal Inſtances of your Majeſty's Grace and Goodneſs, are a Demonſtration of your tender and provident Care for the Preſervation and Encouragement of the Trade and Navigation of Great Britain; and as theſe naturally flouriſh under ſuch gracious Influences, we cannot but pray for the Continuance of ſo wiſe and gentle an Adminiſtration.

May the ſupreme Being be ever propitious to your Majeſty, and make a long Reign as eaſy to your ſelf as it muſt be happy to your People.

Hague, Feb. 8, N. S. This Morning came Advice, that the Prince of Orange with the Princeſs Royal his Conſort, having paſſed over from Enkhuyſen to Frieſland, are arrived at Leeuwarden in good Health. All our Accounts from Italy agree, that the Spaniſh Forces have entirely evacuated Tuſcany, and that the Imperialiſts are in Motion to take Poſſeſſion of the chief Places of that Dutchy. And by Letters from Germany we learn, that the French Troops were preparing to withdraw from Triers, to yield up Philipsbourg and Fort Kehl to the Imperialiſts, and to take Poſſeſſion of the Dutchies of Lorrain and Bar.

This is to give Notice, that the next Meeting of the Commiſſioners for building a Bridge croſs the River Thames, from the New Palace Yard in the City of Weſtminſter, to the oppoſite Shore in the County of Surry, is appointed to be held upon Wedneſday the 16th of February Inſtant, at the Jeruſalem Chamber in the Deanry, Weſtminſter, at Ten a-Clock in the Forenoon.
